

CODE OF CONDUCT

January 2016

St Mark's is a safe and positive school where everyone has something to share, is willing to serve, appreciates what they have, treats others fairly and is able to enjoy learning. To keep it that way we all have to play our part.

Please remember to:

- Speak politely, at the right time, in the right way, at the right volume, using 'please' and 'thank you' with everyone when appropriate
Checklist for speaking: is it true ? is it kind ? is it necessary ?
- Listen when someone is speaking to you, looking at them without fiddling or talking, giving others a chance to explain their point of view (fellowship, justice)
- Share with others, get involved and use the skills and abilities you have to help other people (service, fellowship)
- Keep your hands, feet, arms and legs to yourself
- Leave a good space between you and other people
- Offer help willingly to anyone who needs it (service, friendship and compassion)
- Follow instructions immediately and without arguing
- Take responsibility for your words and actions; be prepared to put things right (justice)
- Knock at closed doors and wait to be invited in
- Walk on the left hand side along corridors
- Move around school calmly and quietly, with arms by your sides, making way for adults and opening doors for them (service, humility)
- Treat the building and school equipment with care and respect (if something is not yours, do not touch it) be grateful for the materials, the designers, the builders and makers, and those who serve us by managing the school and caring for and cleaning the building (service, thankfulness)
- Come to school ready to learn, expecting to work hard and learn from your mistakes; serve yourself well by making the most of every opportunity (service, justice, endurance)
- Try your best in everything !
