

compassion

Try to imagine
what someone is
feeling
and then . . .
do something
to help.
